SIT, STAY, GOOD DOG!

Spring (Extended Winter maybe?) Obedience classes finished Monday, April 16 with the AKC Canine Good Citizen testing. This 7-week session boosted a record-breaking participation of 7 students in Puppy class, 29 students in Basic class and 5 students in Advanced class. Out of 14 dogs that attempted the CGC test, 9 successfully passed!

Along with the CGC qualifiers, new Trick Dog titles were earned by three dogs from the Advanced class! Trick Dog is one of the newest titling competitions offered by AKC for owners and their dogs to compete together to learn and perform special tricks such as following hand signals, fetching a leash and signing on command.

The obedience committee would like to thank the instructors Lester Breidenstine, Mary Bristol and Diane Nitz, class coordinator Chris Corum, helpers Tabitha Phillips, Allie Wagner, Linda Soukup, Morgan Ehlers, Tanya Williams, Cindy Hill, Eldeen (Chris' mother), Tabitha's friends and anyone we may have missed. We truly appreciate the work and help everyone contributed. These classes only happen because of the generosity of you!

The next session of classes will be held in August. More details will be posted when available.

WHOOOPS....

In last month's newsletter it was reported that the minutes listed were from the February meeting. The minutes were from the March meeting. I apologize for any confusion.
