IF YOU PLAN IT, DOGS WILL COME!

The first Summer session of Obedience classes wrapped up Monday, April 16, with the AKC Canine Good Citizen testing. Despite short notice to the community, 3 students in Basic class and 3 students in Puppy class signed up for the 6-week session. Out of 3 dogs that attempted the CGC test, all 3 successfully passed!

Initially the CGC test was to be deferred until the Fall session but given the smaller class size, and our wonderful CGC tester Diane Nitz, happen to be available, the test was rescheduled for the last session.

All-in-all, the new Summer Obedience session has been deemed a success!

The obedience committee would like to thank the instructors Mary Bristol and Cindy Hill, class coordinator Chris Corum, and helpers Morgan Ehlers and Tabitha Dvorak. These classes only happen because of volunteers like you!

The Fall session of classes will start September 10, 2018.
